The 24th Creo HR Seminar

We have had the pleasure of doing business with many of you and are pleased to announce our 24th Human Resource Seminar. It is because of the support of many of you that we are able to invite you all to this HR seminar. This time we invite a guest speakers who specializes in coaching, which was highly popular the past two times, and will now introduce training for managers to maximize their abilities. With great excitement we invite you all to Creo 24th Human Resource Seminar.

Management Training ~ How to Maximize Subordinates' Abilities ~

How to maximize the ability of subordinates in the United States, what and how managers should consider, and how should managers proceed ? This is a seminar that everyone actually experiences part of the actual training provided by an American trainer who specializes in management training.

The lecture will be in English, and our HR consultants will interpret and explain in Japanese.*

Wayne Owens
Consultant/Master Trainer
HRC, Inc.

As chief trainer for our partnership HR consulting firm, HRC Inc., Mr. Owens performs consulting and training all across the US. This includes entry level to upper management training, performance improvement training, and organizational development training. This is his third time lecturing at Creo HR Seminars. The first time was our 12th seminar in December 2010, and second was our 16th seminar in June 2013. He has a Master 's Degree of Education from Xavier University, and lives in Cincinnati.

Participation is free of charge, but you must register ahead of time due to a limited number of seats. The same content will be at both seminar venues.
